Business Leaders Gather to Discuss Business Strategies for Fighting Poverty

Over 250 leaders from business, government, and the development sector gathered in New York to discuss the powerful role that business can play in combating poverty and stimulating economic growth and development at an inclusive business-themed event "Accelerating Progress towards the MDGs through Inclusive Business." The dialogue took place during the United Nations Summit on the MDGs, a summit convened by the UN Secretary-General to take stock of achievements to date and drive progress to meet the 2015 target for the MDGs...
